

The Fresh Start classes cover infant and toddler nutrition, the importance of establishing a healthy feeding relationship and the importance of creating a healthy food environment as children grow and develop.

Q. Can I bring my child with me to the Fresh Start classes?

A. Infants (up to 12 months of age) are welcome at the Starting out Right with Baby Infant Feeding Class.

The Growing Up: Feeding Development and Behavior Toddler Feeding Class is not an appropriate setting for small children. Parents will get more out of the class when they are free from the distraction of caring for busy toddlers.

Starting out Right with Baby (Ages 4 to 9 months)

This session covers the basics of infant growth and development and offers guidelines for feeding baby during the first year of life. Self-care for busy parents is also a focus of this class.
